

M.K. MATHUR

B.E.(Mechanical), MBA(Finance) & Post Graduate Diploma in Computer Technology

Former Associate Director,
Nuclear Power Corporation of India Ltd.

Email: mkmathur61@gmail.com

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Shri M.K. Mathur, a mechanical engineer from M.B.M. Engineering College, Jodhpur (Rajasthan) joined erstwhile PPED(Now NPCIL) in October, 1983. He superannuated from the post of Associate Director & Group Head (Nuclear & Mechanical System) in July, 2021 after serving NPCIL for 38 years. He participated in International Thermonuclear Experimental Reactor (ITER) project committees as expert member for Cryostat, Port Plugs, Vacuum Vessel etc.. He had effectively handled multi-disciplinary tasks like repair of Operating CANDU plants Calandria vault leak, End Shield tri-junction joint leak, Flow tubes replacement etc.

He had been active in several industry associations and served on several committees. Presented & co-authored number of lectures & papers in national & international workshops, symposiums etc.

He organized a number of Workshops, Seminars & Symposiums of Indian Nuclear Society and NPCIL as executive committee member/convener.

ACHIEVEMENTS / AWARDS:

- honored with NPCIL (Unit) Recognition Awards in the year 2005, 2008, 2010 & 2011